A Good Idea at the Time – © 2019 Kaufman & Perri

She said babe car's in the alleyway, come on let's make a getaway
Dine and dash let's go make our own sick gangster movie show
She said skinny, skinny-dipping double dare, I know the people living there
Out of town right now, yeah got a wet bar in a sweet pool house

Hmm curves like a violin so hot she draws you in
I'm bettin' everybody knows her got a stupid grin
She makes it hard you know, hard squeezing out a no
Sucks you in to your chin 'fore you know

Still it seemed like a good, everything good
Nothing but a good idea at the time
But I swear officer that angel of a woman
Had the devil of a wicked mind
Said it seemed like a good, everything good
Nothing but a good idea at the time
Yeah you can't fix stupid but you can't hold back
When lovin' her is on your mind

Hmm, seemed like a, seemed like a, seemed like a good (good idea)
Seemed like a, seemed like a, seemed like a good, at the time
Everything, everything good, a good idea at the time

She played me, played me like a guitar string, woke up in a gone bad dream
Buck-naked face off, mean cops and dogs in a strange backyard

REPEAT PRE-CHORUS, CHORUS TO BRIDGE

Whoa now that broke gas pump that was all on her
This bad tattoo that one's kind of a blur
I swear I didn't know she stole that car
Or all them credit cards

REPEAT CHORUS, TAG
