

Not Even Once – © 2018 Kaufman & Perri

I know you had a man treated your sweet love like pain
Left you broke and cold ice running right through your veins
Promising he'd treat you like a queen
But holding back every last little bit of that love you need

CHORUS:

Not even once, will I ever be that man
Not even once, never gonna turn your love to pain again
Not even once, will I ever be that man
Not even once, baby, get ready for your love to count again

Never cloud your pretty face with tears cause of a lie
On a stack of bibles won't break a promise I made in our life
Won't catch me acting way too proud, or fail to preach my love out loud
The sun is shining down on you and I ain't looking back

REPEAT CHORUS

Never cast a shadow deep inside your lovin' heart
No back sliding broken dreams gonna tear our world apart
You won't find me lost on my way home, sitting with the dog alone
Yeah the stars are shinning down on you no time for looking back

I know you had a man treated your sweet love like pain, not even once
Left you broke and cold ice running right through your veins

REPEAT CHORUS TO OUTRO:

Not even once...(Repeats)
Not even once, not even once, not even once...(Repeats)
Just believe
Follow me
Take my hand baby; come with me yeah...(Repeats)
Never gonna be that man
No time for looking back
No, not even once
