

True Love Gone Wrong – © 2023 Kaufman & Perri

First real kiss way back in junior high school, on the couch all actin' Joe Cool

Puppy love it lasted a week and a day

First real crush, vowed I'd never leave her, all in hook line and sinker

Never thought she'd throw me back in the bay

But of all the heartaches, dark clouds in the sky

Hard rain dumpin' down, bad moons risin' high

Ain't nothing sadder than a lovesick night

Stupid drunk got you fantasizin', dreamin' that your girl's outside

Changin' her mind, yeah she's pushin' on through the barroom door

Tight in that dress gets you beggin' for more

Miss her so much half believin' you hear

Sound of her voice baby callin' you dear

Lord ain't nothin' sadder in this world than love gone wrong

Hmm true love, true love gone wrong

Your heart beats like a furnace deep inside you, so it's easy 'nuff just to lie to

Yourself 'bout the cold sheets waitin' at home

Your head aches like it's spinnin' all around you, and everything turns your mind to

The thousand things you did 'n did wrong

But of all the heartaches, dark clouds in the sky

Hard rain dumpin' down, bad moons risin' high (CHORUS)

You got a long hard desert to cross yeah

Getting' back everything that you lost

Ain't nothing sadder than a lovesick night

Stupid drunk got you fantasizin', dreamin' that your girl's outside

Lord ain't nothin' sadder in this world than love gone wrong

Hmm true love, true love gone wrong
