

Here you come with your bangs with your panhandle twang
With your curves baby goin' all day
Lotta ladies in town strut their stuff flex around
Not a one can even touch your game

Them beauty pageant judges need a different set a numbers
'Fore they sit down to write your score
'Cause ten outta ten that ain't close think again
Girl like you is worth a whole lot more
Truth is you ain't just another face in the crowd
No mid dime a dozen rack 'a bargain store bargains
Dang cute but still a penny a pound
No hangin' with your squad blendin' in hidin' out
Grain 'a sand any shore any beach town
Tell you straight what I mean
What I know what I seen what I found
Girls like you are thin on the ground, uptown and down
Heaven earthbound, yeah thin on the ground

Now I can't hardly count but there ain't any doubt
Figured out how you hold my gaze
When I'm scopin' on you every inch burnin' through
Set my eyes set my mind ablaze

Them beauty pageant judges need a different set a numbers
'Fore they sit down to write your score
'Cause ten outta ten that ain't close think again
Girl like you is worth a whole lot more
Truth is you ain't just another face in the crowd
No mid dime a dozen rack 'a bargain store bargains
Dang cute but still a penny a pound
No hangin' with your squad blendin' in hidin' out
Grain 'a sand any shore any beach town
Tell you straight what I mean
What I know what I seen what I found
Girls like you are thin on the ground, uptown and down
Heaven earthbound, yeah thin on the ground, yeah

Yeah one in a million, period-tee
No cure for what y'all doin' to me

Here you come with your bangs with your panhandle twang so killin' me!

Truth is you ain't just another face in the crowd
No mid dime a dozen rack 'a bargain store bargains
Dang cute but still a penny a pound
No hangin' with your squad blendin' in hidin' out
Grain 'a sand any shore any beach town
Tell you straight what I mean
What I know what I seen what I found
Girls like you are thin on the ground, uptown and down
Heaven earthbound, yeah thin on the ground

Uptown and down, thin on the ground, heaven earthbound
Yeah thin on the ground
